TARGET AUDIENCE

Middle and High School Social Studies Teachers and Instructional Coaches

The Iowa Core Social Studies and Global Studies class will focus on the rationale for global studies standards, content standards, instructional practices, resources, and assessment practices related to global studies standards in Iowa Core Social Studies Standards. Participants will explore and design interactive instructional practices that includes student centered learning with digital learning embedded with the instruction. Participants will identify and develop resources to support the global studies standards. Each participant will design student assessment practices aligned to the learning targets. The participant will engage in collaborative conversations and work teams to produce/identify resources, instructional practices and design a process to assess student learning. Each work team will share the achievements with other class participants.
